Dear members, dear colleagues,

I hope that you are all well.

Nowadays, our thoughts turn particularly to all our people involved in the current dramatic events between Russia and Ukraine. ERSA is deeply concerned about the situation and calls more than ever for dialogue and peaceful respect of peoples and minorities.

Regarding our activities, we are happy to announce an extension of the deadline for the ERSA2022 Congress Call for abstracts and papers. If you didn't make it, don't miss out on this last chance.

We also announce the upcoming EURegionsWeek 2022 including in the programme, the University Sessions where our Community has a unique chance to present state-of-the-art research among an International platform with high-level policy decision-makers.

With best wishes,

André Torre
ERSA President
