Less than two months to go until the ERSA2023 Congress starts.

Dear Members of ERSA, dear Colleagues,

Regional Science don't stop during the summer. This week Agenda includes two Summer Schools (Croatian Section, AISRe), and two Conferences (ASRDLF, GFR).

I am writing to you from La Réunion where ASRDLF is concluding today its 59th Congress. A very rich event where there was great enthusiasm for the quality of the programme and exchange between participants. And most of all the election of a new President.

July is also a busy agenda for our community: ERSA Summer School in Iasi is about to start as well as the RSAI-Bis annual Conference, to be followed by APDR Congress.

Last but not least, our efforts continue to design the best attractive programme for our Annual Congress. In addition to our keynote Lectures and Roundtables, we will propose very outstanding Sessions with hot or innovative topics. During 5 days, the Congress will gather hundreds of Presenters from worldwide including proven scholars, young scientists but also practitioners and key policy makers.

I wish you a nice summer and look forward to meet you during ERSA Congress, in Alicante or online.

With best wishes,

André Torre, ERSA President

European Narratives on Remote Working and Coworking During the COVID-19 Pandemic

A Multidisciplinary Perspective

Editors

Mina Akhavan, Technische Universiteit Delft (TU Delft), The Netherlands

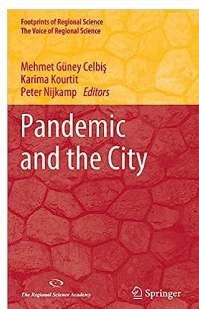

Marco Hölzel, Technical University of Munich (TUM), Germany

Divya Leducq, University of Lille, France

About the book

- Offers a multidisciplinary and comprehensive perspective regarding the immediate and long-term effects of the Covid-19 pandemic on coworking spaces in the European Region
- Seeks a twofold aim: (i) to contribute to the fast-growing literature on coworking space and their effects at different scales; (ii) to present a multidisciplinary perspective about the effects of the yet-lasting Corona-pandemic effects on the patterns of remote working and consequently on coworking spaces, as the most diffused form of new working spaces.

Pandemic and the City

Editors

Mehmet Güney Celbiş, Yeditepe University, Turkey

Karima Kourtiti, Open University in the Netherlands, The Netherlands

Peter Nijkamp, Open University in the Netherlands, The Netherlands

About the book

- Features a collection of novel and original contributions to the study of urban sustainability from a human health perspective in the light of the current corona pandemic and the challenge of cities to offer inclusive, appealing, and healthy infrastructures.
- Analyzes the impact of the corona pandemic on contemporary cities, and how these cities respond to the challenges.
- Featuring also case studies on various cities and regions, it addresses four interconnected research challenges and themes.
