Dear Members of ERSA, dear Colleagues,

I hope that you're well.

At this moment of the year ERSA together with the LOC are joining efforts with the preparation of ERSA2024 Congress edition. The Call for Special Sessions is ongoing and the good news is that we have just decided to postpone the call until the beginning of year.

I wish you a good reading of this newsletter including many opportunities of learning from outstanding scientific articles or books recently issued.

With best wishes,

André Torre, ERSA President

Assessing the Social Impact of Immigration in Europe

Renegotiating Remoteness

Editors:

Jussi P. Laine, University of Eastern Finland
Daniel Rauhut, Institute for Applied Research of Ageing, Austria

Marika Gruber, Carinthia University of Applied Sciences, Austria

Edward Elgar Publishing 2023

About the book

Focusing on the social impact of migration, this book explores migration as an inevitable part of rural development and transition in light of the sharp political divides in European and national political arenas on the topic. It provides an innovative immigration impact assessment based on recently conducted empirical work to enhance local development in European rural and remote regions, looking to promote change in the perception of migration and related policies and practices.
